

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

NOTICE.

THE present volume continues the Catalogue of the Additional MSS., in order of acquisition, from the year 1861 to the end of 1875, and includes descriptions of the Papyri, Additional Rolls and Charters, Detached Seals and Casts, Egerton Manuscripts, and Egerton Charters, acquired during the period from 1854 to 1875. It completes the Catalogue of acquisitions for those years, with the exception of manuscripts in Oriental languages, which are separately described in the series of Oriental Catalogues.

It has been an object, in this as in the preceding volume, to put as much information into the descriptions of the manuscripts as was compatible with conciseness ; and every volume is noticed. But it was necessary to deal more briefly with the mass of documents comprehended under the general term of Charters. The number of these acquired in the twenty-two years, from 1854 to 1875, amounts to more than sixteen thousand, comprising not only grants of lands and other charters properly so called, but Court-rolls of manors, Bailiffs' Accounts, Wills, and not a few State documents. It would have been impracticable to describe these individually ; and the aim has been to give a general view of the collection, in such a form as might be useful as a guide to the entries in the detailed Catalogue of the Rolls and Charters, still in manuscript.

Among so large a number of manuscripts and single documents as are described in the present volume, not under heads of subjects but in order of their acquisition, it will be a labour of research to ascertain what there may be of special value, whether for antiquity or art, or for historical or literary interest, and it may be convenient to readers to be referred directly to those of chief importance.

1. Of Greek manuscripts, the most remarkable are :—

Papyrus CVII. The greater part of the 18th book of the Iliad, written in small uncials, probably in the first century before Christ.

Papyri XCVIII, CVIII. Fragments of the Orations of Hyperides; in small uncials, probably of the second or first century before Christ.

Papyrus CIX. Fragments of an accout, in cursive writing, probably of the first or second century of the Christian era.

Add. 26,113. Fragment of a Hymnologium; 9th century.

Add. 24,371, 28,824. Two copies of Homilies of John Chrysostom, of the 11th and 12th centuries.

Add. 24,372. The Orations of Gregory Nazianzen, of the 11th century.

Add. 27,862. Works of Joannes Damascenus, also of the 11th century.

Add. 28,815. The books of the New Testament, with some deficiencies, finely written and illuminated in the 10th or 11th century; with silver-gilt plates, curiously worked with figures, on the covers.

Add. 28,816. The Acts, Epistles, and Apocalypse, dated A.M. 6619 [A.D. 1111].

Add. 28,270. Lives of Saints; dated in the same year.

An Index to the two volumes of the Catalogue of Additional Manuscripts acquired in the years 1854-1875 is in preparation, and will be printed in a separate volume.

And I take this opportunity to make known that a general Index to the whole series of documents classed under the designation of "Rolls and Charters," in the Cottonian, Harleian, Additional, and other collections, has been commenced, and, when complete, will be printed.

- In connection with the present volume, I desire specially to acknowledge the very efficient help of my colleague, Mr. Thompson, Assistant Keeper, and of Mr. Scott and Mr. Warner, Senior Assistants. I have myself taken part in the first descriptions for both this and the preceding volume, and have revised the sheets throughout.

24,679. FORTY-EIGHT drawings illustrating the life of Christ, roughly executed in ink, heightened by colours, with brief descriptions in German. Paper; xvth cent. Small Folio.

24,680. MISSAL of German use, with musical accents; preceded by a calendar, in which under 12 Nov. is the entry "dedicatio huius monasterii." At f. 123 are added the offices of the Virgin, the body of Christ, etc. Latin. Vellum; xiiith cent., the additions late xvth cent. Bound in boards, covered with sheepskin. Quarto.

24,681. HOURS of the Virgin, and of the Holy Ghost; preceded by a calendar. Latin; with rubrics in Flemish. Vellum; early xivth cent. With illuminated initials, miniatures, and borders. On f. 8 are the arms, arg., three pales az. Duodecimo.

24,682. THE Epistles of St. Paul; with a commentary and interlinear gloss. The prologue, f. 2 b, is that of Rabanus Maurus. Latin. Imperfect; ending at 1 Tim. vi. 17. At the end is a fragment of a lectionary. Vellum; XIIIth cent. With illuminated initials. "Liber ecclesie sancte Marie sanctique Potentini in Steynuel" [Steinfeld in Oldenburg.] Quarto.

24,683. PSALTER; followed by hymns and canticles, the Athanasian creed, litany of the saints and vigil of the dead, and preceded by a calendar in which, under 19 July, is inserted the entry "dedicatio ecclesie de Waescapella." Latin. Imperfect at the end. The last leaf is inserted, and contains a fragment of a treatise on matrimony. Vellum; early XIVth cent. With miniatures, illuminated initials and borders. Small Folio.

24,684, 24,685. PSALTER, with antiphons, hymns, the Athanasian creed, etc., "secundum ordinem monachorum montis Oliueti." Latin. Two volumes. Vellum; XVth cent. With miniatures, illuminated initials and borders. In Vol. I. ff. 3, 52, are the arms of Monte Oliveto, near Arezzo. Large Folio.

24,686. PSALTER, with the canticles, Athanasian creed, litany of the saints, and collects. Latin. A leaf is wanting after f. 22. A calendar is prefixed, containing obits of the mother, wife, and daughters of Edward I., and of members of the families of Mereworthe and Haustede. Vellum; circa 1284. Three leaves inserted at the beginning contain twelve miniatures of saints, four on a page, and eighteen miniatures of the life of Christ, six on a page; the latter pasted down in compartments, painted in various patterns, among which are the lion of England and the arms of Bohun. The first eight leaves of the Psalter are enriched with initials and borders in the highest style of English art; the remainder of the MS. is illuminated by a good, but inferior, artist. On f. 11, side by side, are the arms of England, with a label of five points azure, and the arms of the Counts of Holland. The MS. was probably executed as far as f. 18 for Alphonso, eldest son of Edward I., on his contemplated marriage with a daughter of Florent, Count of Holland, in 1284; and afterwards, in its completed form, came into possession of Elizabeth, daughter of Edward I., and wife successively of John, Count of Holland, and Humphrey de Bohun, Earl of Hereford. On the fly-leaf at the end is a prayer in French referring apparently to the death of the Earl of Hereford, at Boroughbridge, in 1321. On f. 1 is a note on the burial of — Mannyng, 27 Oct. 1584, and on f. 1 b is the name "Edwarde Graveley," in a XVth cent. hand. The MS. was subsequently in the library of Archbishop Tenison.

MSS.—1862.

25,693. "Le Chapelet de Jhesus et de la Vierge Marie." A metrical Life of Christ, the Descent of the Holy Ghost, the Assumption of, and prayers to, the Virgin, illustrated by a series of miniatures: executed for Anna, wife of Ferdinand, King of the Romans, afterwards Emperor. Her name and the monograms IHS. MA. [Jesus Maria] are on the clasps. A portrait of Ferdinand kneeling before the Virgin is the subject of the last miniature. The volume seems to have afterwards come into the possession of Margaret Tudor, wife of James IV. of Scotland, the letters of the name "Marguerite" on Tudor roses forming the bosses of the binding. Preceding the metrical Life is a prose account of its divisions, stating that the original "Chapelet" was given by an angel to Jehan de Fontaines, a native of Savoy, in 1280. On the fly-leaf at the beginning is the autograph of M[artin] Folkes, vice-president of the Royal Society, 1726, a former owner. Vellum; xvth cent. Small Quarto. Presented by the Earl of Home.

25,694. "REGIMENTS und geschlechter buch der Statt Zürich." The arms of the families are in colour, and the biographical notices are carried down to 1678, but those of the Grebel family to 1737. The title is on an engraved emblematical frontispiece cut from another book, with arms of Zürich at the foot, and on f. 3 those of Zoller. At the end is the signature of a former owner, Hans Heinrich Grebel, 1699. Paper. Folio.

27,695. TRACTATUS de septem vitiis "propter quæ plurimum falitur et decipitur omnis homo," et speciebus eorum. Imperfect. In the prologue the author states that he designs his treatise as a continuation to a previous work on the four cardinal virtues; that the stories or instances which he introduces are derived from his grandfather, Pelegrino Cocharelli, and that he writes for the instruction of his children, and especially of his son John. At f. 3, reflections occur which show the author to have been a citizen of Genoa. Vellum; written probably in Genoa in the latter part of the XIVth cent. With miniatures remarkable for natural expression and composition, representing historical and social scenes; and with coloured borders filled with designs of natural objects admirably executed. The miniature at f. 5 represents the capture of Tripoli, in Syria, by the Sultan of Egypt, in 1288; and that at f. 6 b, the destruction of the Templars in France and the subsequent death of Philip IV. From the close agreement in choice of subjects and style of execution with the characteristics attributed to the famous Genoese miniaturist of the family of Cybo, known as "the Monk of Hyères" (as in the painting of insects and larger animals, ships, and buildings), and from the connection of the treatise itself with the city of Genoa, the paintings may be reasonably ascribed to that artist. Paper. Quarto.

The following Nos., 27,926—27,943 B, were bequeathed by Felix Slade, Esq.

27,926. THE Gospels of St. Luke and St. John in Latin. Imperfect.

The prologue, table of chapters, and cap. i. vv. 1–4 of St. Luke are missing, and the latter part of the table of chapters of St. John is also wanting. At the end, f. 47 b, is a table of lessons for the festivals throughout the year. Vellum. Written in Germany at the end of the xiith or beginning of the xiiith cent.; having large illuminated initials with figures introduced on ff. 2, 28, a small illuminated initial on f. 27, and a half-page miniature with figures at the beginning of St. John's Gospel. Bound in thick wooden boards, covered with stained leather, stamped with small patterns of roundels inclosing trefoils, etc. On the obverse side is a Limoges enamelled copper plate, representing our Saviour in majesty, let into the cover, and surrounded by a border of similar enamel. Belonged formerly to Heiningen Nunnery in Hildesheim diocese. Folio.

27,927. "LE livre de l'Ecclesiaste, ensemble le Cantique de Salomon. Escrites en diverses sortes de lettres par Esther Anglois, Française. A Lislebovrg [Edinburgh], 1599." With letter of presentation to Sir Anthony Bacon prefixed. Paper. The writing throughout is minute and delicate, and varies in form with every chapter. An ornamental title-page, the arms of Bacon, and the portrait of Inglis herself in pen-and-ink are prefixed. Each page is enclosed within a border, and every chapter has a tailpiece similarly executed. Bound in brown velvet embroidered in silver and gold. Octavo.

27,928. "OFFICE de la Vierge. Accompagné de plusieurs autres Prières. Escrites par N. Iarry, 1650." Vellum. With three coloured drawings. Executed for Marie, wife of Antoine de Nicolai, Seigneur de Goussainville, whose arms occur on the inside covers of the binding and at the top of f. 1, and her monogram at f. 81. Bound in dark rough morocco with silver clasps. Duodecimo.

27,929. "CANON Missæ. Additæ sunt Præparatio ad Missam et Orationes quæ ab Episcopis [dicuntur] cum solemniter vel private celebrant; necnon gratiarum actiones Missæ sacrificio peracto. Juxta correctionem novi Missalis." Vellum. Written in Italy at the beginning of the xviiith cent. Bound in red morocco, very richly and finely tooled in gold; the pattern relieved with silver. In the centre of each cover are the arms of Cardinal Piccolomini, and in the corners the word "Libertas" stamped on a crescent. See Add. MS. 19,464. Folio.

27,930. POCKET-BOOK containing French poems by F. M. Arouet de Voltaire, A. H. de La Motte, B. le Bouyer de Fontenelle, J. de La Fontaine, and others. Paper. Exquisitely written by M. Desruelle, Paris, 12 Oct. 1780; with tinted pen-and-ink drawings by T. D. Dugoust. Duodecimo.

27,931. CANTATAS, by G. B. Balbi, Dr. G. L. Berselli, G. A. Bergamori, and D. Copeda, with the music. Vellum; xviiith cent. With designs in pen-and-ink by Carlo Buffagnotti. On f. 2 are the arms of the Medici family. Bound in morocco, richly tooled. Large Quarto.

27,932. ENGLISH and Italian songs, with the music. Paper; beginning of the xviiith cent. Bound in olive morocco, richly tooled in gold; with the royal arms of England on the covers. Small Quarto.

27,933. ORIGINAL commission from Pietro Lando, doge of Venice, to Nicolo Nani, podestà of Istria; Sept. 1543. Ital. Vellum. At the top of the first page, which is ornamented with a richly coloured border, is the portrait of Nani, and his arms are painted in the lower margin. In the original binding of red morocco, with a border of gold tooling inclosing stamps, on one cover of Nani's name, and on the other of the date, "MDXXXIII." Belonged to James Bindley, of the Stamp Office, and to William Beckford, of Fonthill Abbey. Octavo.

27,934. "CAPITOLI et Ordinationi della Compagnia secondo la sua Proprieta detta Opera di Pieta," established in Empoli in Tuscany; with the Confirmation of the vicar-general of the Archbishop of Florence; 2 Apr. 1529. Vellum; early xvth cent. The frontispiece is a painting of the Passion of our Saviour, and on f. 3 is a miniature initial. In the original binding of wooden boards covered with dark leather, tooled in gold, with corner bosses, and with a coloured drawing let into the reverse cover. Octavo.

27,935. COPIES of papal bulls and imperial letters, etc., relating to the Œcumenical Council of Trent, 1545, 1546. Latin. Collected from the original records of proceedings of the council by Angelo Massarelli, of San Severino, secretary to the council, as certified on f. 2 by Olaus Magnus, Archbishop of Upsala, and Joannes Petrus Ferretus, Bishop of Milo; Bologna, 15 Feb. 1548. In the autograph of the secretary. Vellum. In the original binding of dark morocco covered with gold tooling. Folio.

27,936. "PANEGYRIQUE a tres-grand et tres-puissant Prince Charles Prince de Galles etc. Par Gilbert Primerose, Ministre du St. Euangile" [afterwards Canon of Windsor]. In two books; I. in praise of James I., f. 8; II. in praise of the Prince of Wales, f. 31. At the end, f. 62 b, is a summary of chapters, followed by the autograph approval of the book by Sir William Alexander, the recommendation of the book to the Archbishop of Canterbury by Sir Edward Conway, secretary of state, signed, and the imprimatur of Daniel Featlye. Paper. "Des liures de Jean de Primeroze." In the original vellum covers, stamped with the arms of the Prince of Wales. Small Quarto.

- 28,815. THE Four Gospels, Acts of the Apostles, Catholic Epistles, and the Epistles of St. Paul to the Romans, Corinthians, and Galatians. Greek. Imperfect; the leaves, having the arguments and tables of chapters, or the beginning of the books, having been generally cut out. In some instances they appear to have been of purple vellum with letters of gold. Vellum; beautifully written in the xth century, with a coloured head-piece to each book, the titles in letters of gold, ornamented initials, and miniatures of the Evangelists before the Gospels of SS. Luke and John, and the Acts of the Apostles. Bound in wooden boards covered with velvet and lined on the inner sides with embroidered silk. Forming a border round the upper cover, are silver-gilt plates worked with figures. The plates at the top and bottom have half-length figures of the four Evangelists, Peter and Paul. In those on the sides is represented the overthrow of the heretics Nestor and Noetus, with two inscriptions, the first of which is: "Βαλλει κατα γης τον παλαμναιον Νεστωρ: εχεις αβλητα σης αριστειας αβλον:" the second: "Κτεινεις Νοητον σταυρον ω τυπωμενω." A third inscription has probably been lost in cutting the plates. In the centre of the cover is a gilt plate worked with the figure of our Saviour in Majesty, having on either side the Virgin and St. John, the nimbuses enamelled, and, above and below, the symbols of the four evangelists and cherubim; apparently of late execution. Folio.

29,731. 1. "FORMULA spiritualium exercitiorum pro danda occasione nouiciis in spiritualibus studiis;" in three books, with a prologue and table of chapters. Probably by the same author as the following, but the title does not appear in the list of his works in the "Bibliotheca Cartusiana" of Petreius. f. 3 b.

2. "Tractatus intytulatus oculus religiosorum eximii doctoris Jacobi Karthuciensis [de Clusa, sive de Paradiso, sive Junterbuick];" in twenty-seven chapters, with prologue and epilogue, f. 64. See Petreius, "Bibl. Cartusiana," p. 155.

Vellum; at the end of the first tract is the date 1474. In the original leather binding, with blind-tooling and brass clasps. On the first fly-leaf is written, "Liber domus clericorum Albe Curie in Cassel," and also, "Fratrum Capucinatorum Montis Angelorum [? Engelberg in Unterwalden, Switzerland] 1631." Octavo.

29,732. JACOBI de Clusa [sive Junterbuick], Carthusiani, tractatus tres, scil. :—

1. "Quæstiones et dubia pro religiosis et secularibus," f. 3.

2. "Tractatulus de perfectione religiosorum," f. 168.

3. "De profectu in vita spirituali." In the list of the author's works given by Petreius, "Bibliotheca Cartusiana," p. 155, this and the preceding treatise form a single work. f. 180.

Paper; late xvth cent. In the original boards covered with sheepskin, and lined on the inner side with two leaves from a calendar. Quarto.

29,733. "AN Establishment of the numbers of men and of the numbers and natures of y^e guns fitt to be made and confirm'd upon euery of his majesty's ships, according to y^e opinion of y^e principall officers and commanders of y^e Navy," etc.; 16 Mar. 1673[4]. At the end, f. 9, is added a catalogue of books belonging to George Thorp, of London Bridge, in 1747 and 1750. Paper; xvith and xviiith centt. In the original leather binding, richly tooled with gold filagree work. Oblate Duodecimo. Presented by the Rev. Thomas Cartwright Smyth, D.D., Vicar of St. Chad's, Far Headingley, Leeds.

29,734. ORDERS addressed to the constables of Preston, co. Rutland, for the collection of assessments, the supply of forage to Parliamentary troops, etc., with receipts, accounts and other papers; 13 Dec. 1644—6 Feb. 1660[1]. Among the signatures attached are those of the following county commissioners and other officials:—Thomas Burneby, ff. 1, 20;—John Osborne, ff. 5, 9, 10;—Jo. Hatcher, ff. 5, 9;—Thomas Waite, E. Armyne, Robert Horsman, William Busby, and Samuel Barker, f. 10;—Rich. Sharpe, ff. 11–41 passim;—John Greene, ff. 27, 30;—William Sheild and Benjamin Norton, f. 35;—Andrew Rudkin, ff. 46, 49. Paper. Small Folio. Presented by the Rector and Churchwardens of Preston.

29,735. “ORDO breuiarii secundum consuetudinem Romane curie;” with a calendar prefixed. The offices for Saints, or “Festiuitates sanctorum per totum anni circulum,” begin at f. 114, and are followed by:—“Ordo officii beate Marie virginis,” f. 175 b;—“Officium in agenda mortuorum,” f. 182;—and the office “in conceptione beate Marie virginis,” f. 186. An office for St. Francis, in a later hand, is inserted at f. 155.

Vellum; written in double columns in a fine Italian hand of the end of the xvth cent., with miniatures, borders and initials, in the best style of Florentine art of the period. Bound in red morocco, richly tooled, with silver clasps and gaufred edges. The following entries illustrating the history of the MS. occur in the calendar:—III id. Febr., “Obitus Gerardi spetiarii [speciarii] qui construxit capellam beati Antonii et altare beati Francisci,” f. 1 b;—v non. Maii, “Inuentio Sancte Crucis, duplex,” f. 3;—II id. Jul., “Festum sancti Boneuenture, episcopi et confessoris, de ordine Minorum, semper celebratur secunda dominica mensis Iulii. Et hoc de mandato Sixti iiii” [1471–1484]. f. 4;—iiii non. Oct., “Natale beatissimi patris nostri Francisci confessoris, duplex maior,” f. 5 b. The evidence of these entries, connecting the MS. with the Franciscan order, is confirmed by the half-erased inscription on f. 1, “Iste liber pertinet ecclesie S. Crucis de Florentia,” the Church of Santa Croce at Florence belonging to a Franciscan house. As the arms, moreover, of Riario, surmounted by a patriarchal cross, are introduced into the borders of ff. 7, 127 b, it is probable that the MS. was executed for Frà Pietro Riario, a Franciscan, Patriarch of Constantinople, Cardinal in Dec. 1471, archbishop of Florence in 1473, ob. 1474, and was by him presented to the Church of Santa Croce. Folio.

29,736. “A CORRECT and impartial report of the trial [at Armagh Summer Assizes, 1808] of Major Alexander Campbell, late of the 21st Regiment of foot, for shooting Captain [Alexander] Boyd, of [the] said Regiment, in a duel in Newry on 22 June, 1807 . . . ; with an account of his behaviour after receiving sentence of death, his execution, &c., &c., taken on the spot by an eminent professional Gentleman." Paper; xixth cent. Small Quarto. Presented by Robert Cowtan, Esq.

PAPYRI

ACQUIRED IN THE YEARS

1854-1875.

Pap. LXXVI. A GRANT of land to the abbat of St. Phœbammon, near Thebes; in Coptic. Probably of the ixth century. Purchased in the year 1854.

The following Nos., LXXVII.-XCVIII., were purchased of the Rev. Henry Stobart, in the year 1857.

Pap. LXXVII. THE will of Abraam, Bishop of Hermonthis, or Harment, anchoret of the Memnonium [Djeme, near Thebes], son of Sabinus and Rebecca, bequeathing the cell of St. Phœbammon and all his property to Victor, priest and monk. Attested by the Bishop; by the scribe, Joseph son of John, who wrote the document for the Bishop, who was unable to write [γραμματα μη επισταμενου]; by Dioscorus son of James, archpriest of the church of Hermonthis; Pantonymus son of Apadius; Abraham son of Theodosius, civil magistrate [πολιτευομενος] of the same; Paul son of Abraham, deacon; and Theophilus, defender of the same church. Without date; a few lines being lost at the beginning. Greek: in cursive characters without separation of words; probably of the end of the viiith century. Unrolled and glazed; measuring 3 ft. 8 in. × 1 ft. 2 in. See a translation of this document [by C. W. Goodwin] in the "Law Magazine and Law Review," Feb. 1859, p. 244.

Papp. LXXVIII.-XCVII. DEEDS of gift, wills, and other documents relating to the monastery of St. Phœbammon, of Mount Djeme, near Thebes, of the viiith and ixth centt.; in Coptic (Sahidic).

Pap. XCVIII. THE Ἐπιτάφιος, or Funeral Oration, of Hyperides over Leosthenes and his comrades in the Lamian war [B.C. 323]. Greek. The greater portion of the oration, in fourteen columns, partly imperfect. Perhaps of the first century B.C. The entire column measures 8 in. × 3 in., and there is an upper margin of 1 in.

At the back are fragments of an astrological treatise, in Greek; partly in small uncial characters, similar to those of the Hyperides; followed by a treatise on magic, in cursive writing. The first complete lines of the astrological tract are:—

“φαίνων τον του κρονου ευρισκομεν την κεινησιν
ποιουμενον εν παρθενω μοιρης α οικου ερμους υψωματι ερμους ταπινωματι αφροδειτης οριοις”

The Oration of Hyperides was edited from the present MS. by the Rev. Churchill Babington, with an engraved facsimile; Cambridge, 1858.

Pap. XCIX. FRAGMENT, in five columns, of an account; apparently of tribute. Greek. In cursive characters, probably as early as the beginning of the Christian era. Measuring 2 ft. 9 in. × 11 in. Purchased of Messrs. Boone, in the year 1857.

Pap. XCIX*. 1. A small fragment of the preceding document.
2. A small fragment, containing a few words only, in Greek.
Purchased of the same, in the same year.

Papp. C.—CII. DEEDS of conveyance and bequest of inhabitants of Djeme, near Thebes, in Coptic; probably of the ixth century. Presented by G. C. Rankin and C. W. Goodwin, Esquires, in the year 1861.

Papp. CIII.—CV. Two wills and a deed of mortgage relating to property in Djeme, near Thebes; the first document dated in the year of the Saracens 132, and of Diocletian 466 = A.D. 750; the others of about the same period. In Coptic (Sahidic). Described by C. W. Goodwin in the “Archæologia,” vol. xxxix. p. 447. Purchased of David Brewer, Esq., of Aberdeen, in the year 1863.

Pap. CVI. PETITION of Αρως to King [Ptolemy?]. Greek: in cursive characters. Measuring 8½ in. × 2¾ in. Purchased of Viscountess Strangford, in the year 1864.

Pap. CVI*. A. B. Two fragments of a tale, composed probably by an Egyptian Jew as a Haggādāh on Exodus, cap. i., in Aramaic, strongly influenced by Phœnician or Hebrew. Written in Egypto-Aramaic cursive characters of the late Ptolemaic period. Formerly part of the Blacas collection. Transferred from the Department of Antiquities in the year 1866.

The following Nos., CVII.—CXI., were purchased of the widow of Mr. A. C. Harris, of Alexandria, in the year 1872.

Pap. CVII. Two fragments, containing together the principal part of Book xviii. of the Iliad. The first fragment has verses 1–171, in four columns, and portions of verses 172–216, in an imperfect fifth column. The second fragment has verses 311 to the end, in seven columns. The text agrees with that of other extant MSS. A collation of the first three columns shows only slight variations from that of Heyne's edition; excepting that the last line reads, τεῦχεα καλά φέρουσα παρ' ἡφαιστοῦ ἀνακτος, instead of τεῦχεα μαρμαίροντα παρ' ἡφαιστοῦ φέρουσα, as in Heyne. In small uncial characters, probably of the first century B.C.

The first fragment measures 2 ft. × 10 in.; the second 3 ft. × 10 in.

They were obtained by Mr. A. C. Harris, of Alexandria, from an Arab who had discovered them in "the crocodile pit" at Ma'abdey, near Monfalat, in Egypt, on the 9th of December, 1849. From the same tomb Mr. Harris obtained fragments of another MS. of the Iliad, having on the back a work of Tryphon, the grammarian.

Pap. CVIII. THIRTY-TWO fragments, containing portions of two Orationes of Hyperides; viz.: against Demosthenes, respecting the treasure of Harpalus; and in defence of Lycophron. Greek. Those relating to the latter are numbered 9, 13, 28, 31. The fragments consist of portions of columns measuring about 2 in. in width, and divided by margins of about 1 in. in width, sometimes more and sometimes less. The column is in no instance perfect, but must have measured about 6½ in. in length. The upper margin measures a little less, and the lower rather more, than 3 in. In small uncial characters, probably of the second or first century B.C.

They were purchased by Mr. A. C. Harris, of a dealer of Thebes, in Upper Egypt, in the spring of 1847; and were published by him in facsimile, in 1848. They have been also edited by August Boeckh, in the "Allgemeine Litteraturzeitung," Nos. 223–227, 1848; by Hermann Sauppe, in the "Philologia," 1848; and by the Rev. Churchill Babington, with preliminary dissertation and notes (Cambridge, 1850).

The fragments are mounted in eleven glazed frames.

Pap. CIX. FRAGMENTS of what appears to be an assessment or tribute-roll, in which names are entered in columns between numerals. Greek. Mounted on nine sheets, framed and glazed. The ciphers on the left of the names in the three first entries of Plate I. are "νβχ," "πηχ," "ρχ." The first columns in Plates I. II. III. are headed respectively by the numbers οα, οαβ, οαγ. The columns measure, at their full size, from 12 to 13½ in. × 6 in. In cursive letters, probably of the first or second century of the Christian era.

Pap. CX. FRAGMENTS of a scheme of nativity or horoscope in Greek, headed [γενεσις ανουβι]ωινος α ψανωνωτος, and calculated in the first year of the Emperor Antoninus [A.D. 138], on the 8th of the month Adrian, and 18th of the ancient (Egyptian) month Tubi. Written in uncial characters. Compare another copy printed in facsimile in Dr. Young's "Hieroglyphics," pl. 52; copied and translated into French, in the "Œuvres complètes de Cicéron," ed. Panckoucké, tome xxxi. p. 380; and copied, with a facsimile, in the "Notices et Extraits des Manuscrits de la Bibl. Impériale," tome xviii. p. 237.
PAPYRI.—1854–75. 3 R

The fragments are mounted on four sheets and glazed. They measure from 5 in. \times 3 in. to 5 in. \times 7 in.

Pap. CXI. SMALL fragments, showing Greek cursive writing much obliterated. They had formed part of the covering of forged Greek papyri.

Fig. 1,894. PICTORIAL illustrations of the Book of Genesis, from the Creation to the latter part of the history of Joseph (ch. xlii.), contained in twenty leaves, each leaf having eight subjects. A leaf is wanting after f. 1. Short descriptions in French, taken from the "Historia Scholastica" of Petrus Comestor, accompany the drawings through the first part of the volume. The writing changes from a minute, and probably French, hand to one larger and evidently English. The drawings are executed in outline, and as far as f. 15 are generally tinted or coloured. They show unusual power of design and expression, with knowledge of the human figure, and skill in treating the draperies. The obvious intention of expressing an Oriental character in the features of the Hebrew figures is very remarkable and uncommon, at the period. They may perhaps have been executed in the province of Gascony, at the beginning of the xivth century. Vellum. Small Quarto. From the Farnborough Fund.

Fig. 1,895, 1,896. THE Old Testament in German. The second book of Chronicles and the books of Ezra and Nehemiah are wanting. The first five chapters of the Gospel of St. Matthew are added after Deuteronomy. The prefaces of Jerome, etc., are collected at the end of Vol. II., which also has the colophon, "Explicit vetus Testamentum per Georgium Rorer de Ratispona sub anno Domini millesimo quadringentesimo sexagesimo quinto, Sabbato post Margarethe, etc." Two volumes. Vellum; with a few coarsely executed initials and miniatures. In old binding of wooden boards covered with hogskin, with clasps. Large Folio. From the Farnborough Fund.

Fig. 1,897. "TRACTATUS de practica officii Inquisitionis heretice prauitatis, maxime in partibus Tholosanis, Carcassonensibus, Albiensibus, et in prouincia Narbonensi et circumuicinis dyocesisibus," in five parts, by Bernardus Guidonis, of the Friars Preachers, Inquisitor-General of Toulouse, circa 1320. On a fly-leaf at the beginning are a few Latin verses predicting events in the years 1454-1460. Vellum; xivth cent. Small Folio.

Fig. 1,898. "DESCRIPCION de la Santa Iglesia Primada de Toledo. Esta sacada de la que pusieron el Canonigo Ortiz, y el Racionero Acuña, y corregida en lo que se hà podido; y separadamente ha puesto otra de mi orden el S^r Canonigo Brabo, teniendo esta presente, la Relacion que ha dado el M^{ro} Aparejador Eugenio Lopez Durango;" by Francisco Antonio Lorenzana. Eg. 1982. "Ye buke of [the voiage and travaille of Sir] John Maundeville." The text differs considerably from that of the printed editions, and the prologue does not include the apocryphal passage found in Cotton MS. Titus C. xvi., in which the author states that he translated the work from Latin into French, and from French into English. Vellum; xvth cent. On the fly-leaf, f. 2, is a note by E. Hill, M.D., 22 Mar. 1803; stating that on a leaf of paper, pasted on the inside of the old cover, was written, "Thys fayre Boke I have fro the Abbey of Saint Albons in thys yeare of our Lord m.cccclxxxx the sixt daye of Apryll. Willyam Caxton," together with the name of Richard Tottyl, 1579, by whose descendant, the Rev. Hugh Tuthill, the book was given to E. Hill. Small Quarto.

Eg. 1983. "TRACTATUS Rabani Mauri [arohiepiscopi Moguntini] super librum Regum;" with the prefatory epistle to Abbat Hiloin, and an index of chapters to each of the four books. Vellum; xiith cent. On the fly-leaf, f. 2, is an outline drawing of an emperor, copied, apparently, from an earlier manuscript. Folio.

- Ms. 1,984. 1. TRACTATUS de naturis rerum, in quatuor "particulas" divisus. Imperfect at the beginning. Printed, but with considerable variations and without the diagrams, under the title, "Philosophicarum et astronomicarum institutionum Guilielmi Hirsaugiensis olim abbatis libri tres," at Basle, in 1531; and also, more fully, among the spurious works of Bede in Migne's "Patrologiæ Cursus," tom. xc. col. 1127. According to the "Histoire littéraire de la France," tom. xii. p. 457, the work is the "Philosophia Minor" of Guillaume de Conches, to whom it is attributed also in Royal MS. 9 A. xiv. f. 257, and Add. MS. 26,770, f. 46 b; in the latter, under the title, "Summa Magistri Willelmi de Conchis de naturis rerum." f. 2.
2. Tractatus de naturis rerum, in quo continentur sermones generales "de septem regionibus," "de spera et motu eius," "de cursu planetarum," "de quatuor elementis," "de animalibus quadrupedibus," "de auibus," "de piscibus," etc. Incip. "Sermo generalis de septem regionibus et primo dicendum est de vii regionibus aeris." Imperfect, wanting several leaves before the last, f. 146. Attributed in Arundel MS. 142, where it is preceded by a short preface, to Albertus Magnus; but, according to Quétif and Echard, "Scriptores ordinis Prædicatorum," tom. i. pp. 183, 251, more probably the work of Thomas de Cantimprato. See, however, the "Histoire littéraire de la France," tom. xix. p. 183. f. 34.
Vellum; xiiith cent. At the end is the name of Ruppracht von Karbon. Small Quarto.
- Ms. 1,985. 1. "Modi singulari de cocina:" recipes for made dishes, soups, sauces, pastry, etc., f. 1. With index at the end of the volume, f. 105.
2. "Libro de manescalia de tutte le febre ed ogni altre infirmitate che se generano in li canalli, composto per uno dicto Messer Joanne Facio per ordinatione de Re Carlo Magno Imperatore;" preceded by a table of contents, f. 25.
Vellum; xvth cent. In gilt-tooled leather binding. Duodecimo.
- Ms. 1,986-1,989. "EIGENTLICHE Beschreibung der Geschlechtern einer [öblichen] Statt Zürich, wann Jedes derselben zum Burger-recht gelanget, was für Ehrenstellen von selbigen bekleidet, was für Aemter bedienet, mit eines jeden geschlechts fuhrenden Ehren-wapen, mit viler geist- und weltlicher persohnen eigentlicher abbildungen aussgezieret; alles auss bewährten Documentis mit fleiss zusammen getragen und bis auf jezige zeiten richtig fortge-" fuehret:" arms in colour of the principal families of Zürich, alphabetically arranged, with brief biographical notes and numerous engraved portraits. Four volumes. Executed, circa 1765–1770, apparently for a member of the family of Gossweiler, whose arms are on the fly-leaf at the beginning of Vol. I., probably Hans Georg Gossweiler, "Zunftmeister," or Master of the Guilds in 1769 [see Vol. II. f. 67]. Paper. Folio.

EG. 1,990. "DER Statt Zürich Regiment Buch," etc.: containing lists of magistrates and officials from 913 to 1775, with other matter relating to the history and government of the city, and engraved portraits of the "consules" from Rodolph Bruno, 1336, to Johann Hoffmeister, 1734. On the engraved title-page are the arms, in colour, of the family of Gossweiler of Zürich. Paper. Folio.

EG. 1,991. CONFESSIO amantis, by John Gower. Imperfect, beginning in the Prologue with the line, "which al þe world haþ ouertake" [ed. Pauli, vol. i. p. 8], after the lines which distinguish between the editions dedicated respectively to Richard II. and Henry of Lancaster, afterwards Henry IV. At the end are included the lines, "And gret wel Chaucer whan ȝe mete," etc. [ed. Pauli, vol. iii. pp. 374–377, note], which are followed by fifty-two lines containing the substance, but with considerable variations, of the last sixty-two in Pauli's edition. These lines, together with the subjoined "Epistola super huius operis sui complementum Johanni Gower a quodam philosopho transmissa," occur also in Royal MS. 18 C. xxii., which gives the dedication to Richard II., and in which, moreover, the miniature on f. 7. b of the present volume, containing, apparently, the portrait of the author, is repeated. Vellum; xvth cent. Written in double columns, with illuminated borders at the beginning of each book, and a single miniature. According to a note by Sir Edward Dymoke, on f. 1 b, this manuscript was given to him at Scarborough Castle, 5 Apr. 1609, by his aunt, Lady Catherine Burghe [widow of William de Burgh, Lord Burgh], to whom it descended from her mother, Elizabeth [daughter of Sir John Blount, mistress of Henry VIII., and] wife, successively, of [Gilbert Talboys] Lord Talboys, and [Edward Clinton] Lord Clinton, afterwards Earl of Lincoln. Among other marginal entries are:—Note of the birth of Henry Clinton [afterwards 2nd Earl of Lincoln]; 6 June, 1542, f. 2;—signatures of Elyzabeth Clynton, ff. 34, 94;—"The lorde Clyntone. Elesabyth Talboys your eneme to thomost [the utmost]." "take yowr parte wo schale tho yt be charl oft Wylschper," f. 143;—names of Anne Pellam [Pelham] and Amias Willoughby, f. 212 b. At the beginning is inserted a Latin acrostic by Thomas Tragiscus, Bohemus, on the name of John Brograve, whose signature is affixed to an inscription on the fly-leaf, dated 1682. The volume subsequently belonged to Francis William Caulfield, 2nd Earl of Charlemont. Folio.

Fig. 1,992. METRICAL chronicle of England to 1461, by John Hardyng; beginning with the prologue, and ending imperfectly with the first line of the last stanza but one of ch. cxxl. of the edition printed by R. Grafton, in 1543. Paper; end of the xvth cent. From the library of Lord Charlemont. Quarto.

Fig. 1,993. LIVES of the Saints, etc., in English verse, according to the order of the calendar; possibly, as suggested by Sir F. Madden, "Havelok the Dane," 1838, p. lii, by the author of the metrical chronicle attributed to Robert of Gloucester. This and other copies, more or less identical (of which the earlier and more important are in Harl. MS. 2,277, and Ashmole MS. 43, Laud MS. 108, and the Vernon MS. in the Bodleian), are minutely described and compared by Dr. Carl Horstmann, "Altenglische Legenden," Paderborn, 1875. See also Warton's "History of English Poetry," ed. 1840, vol. i. pp. 13-20. The contents are:—

1. Selections from Old and New Testament history, from the Creation to the Crucifixion, intended apparently for Advent; beginning, "Whanne hit comeþ on my þouȝt. þe muchele sor and sunne," and ending, "Ne miȝte þe sonne schine lengore. þan he to deþe drow," f. 1. The latter part of the poem differs from the copy in the Vernon MS.; see Horstmann, pp. xiv, xx, and Warton, vol. i. p. 20.
2. The birth and childhood of Christ, preceded by the history of Joachim and Anna, etc.; beginning, "Of ioie and bliſse is now mi þouȝt. care to bi leue," f. 27. Printed by Horstmann, p. 64, from the present copy and Ashmole MS. 43.
3. Lives of saints and commemorations of festivals, beginning with St. Andrew [30 Nov.], instead of the Circumcision [1 Jan.], as in most copies, and ending imperfectly in the middle of the life of St. Francis of Assisi [4 Oct.]. The prologue, f. 41, begins, "Now bloweþ þis newe fruit. þ' late bigan to ſpringe." Printed in part, but from other copies, by the Philological Society, ed. Furnivall, 1862, the Early English Text Society, ed. Morris, 1871, Warton, ed. 1840, vol. i. pp. 14-17, and Horstmann, p. 151. The order is as follows:—
